Menopause and Identity: A qualitative Study of Trans
Individuals Assigned Female at Birth

I am seeking to interview trans people who were assigned female at birth, 18 or over, who have experienced or are experiencing perimenopause or menopause.

Interviews will be at a time to suit you and will take about 90 minutes. All information will be anonymised.

My name is Esthefanea F. Santos (she/her). I am a cisgender heterosexual researcher and Counselling Psychology doctorate trainee at the University of Roehampton.

I am looking to interview 15 people for the study. If you're eligible or know someone who might be, please contact me for more information.
